

We are submitting our objection to giving banks an exemption to the no call list. If you make an exception for banks then you will have other organizations and business' asking to be exempt from the no call list. We have enjoyed not having constant unwanted phone solicitations and do not want this to change.

Sincerely,
Linda & Jim Draper